RELIGIOUS INFORMATION
IS HEAD COVERING REQUIRED DUE TO RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION? YES ☐ NO ☐
NAME OF RELIGIOUS GROUP

Head coverings may be worn in a driver's license or identification card photograph for sincerely held religious beliefs only and must be adjusted to allow a full-face photograph to enable facial image capture. A driver's license may be issued without a photograph, but a driver's license issued without a photograph cannot be use for federal identification or for voter identification purposes. See Ark. Code Ann. § 27-16-801(b)(2). A driver's license without a photograph may only be obtained in the Revenue Office in downtown Little Rock.

If this request is found to be made unlawfully, fraudulently, or by deceit, the Department reserves the right to revoke or cancel a license at the Licensee's expense.

I attest under penalty of perjury that one of the principles of my religion requires me to wear a head covering. I understand that a facial recognition photograph is required.
