GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE

The fiduciary return is used to report the income of an estate or trust. Every fiduciary, or at least one of the joint fiduciaries, must file a return for the estate or trust for which they act, provided any of the following apply:

1. Any income is currently distributable;
2. The tax is payable by the beneficiaries or by the grantor;
3. The net income is $3,000 or over and/or
4. Any beneficiary is a nonresident.

WHEN TO FILE

The due date is April 15th for calendar year filers. Fiscal year filers must file on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of the fourth (4th) month following the close of the fiscal year.

EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE

If you request an extension of time to file your federal fiduciary tax return (with federal Form 7004) you can receive the same extension on your state return. If you do not file a federal extension, you can request a 180 day Arkansas extension using Form AR1055-FE before the filing date of April 15th (for calendar year filers). Send Form AR1055-FE to:

Individual Income Tax Section
ATTN: Extension
P.O. Box 8149
Little Rock, AR 72203-8149

Note: To receive credit for your federal or state extension, when you file your Arkansas return you must check the box on the face of the return indicating you filed an extension.

INTEREST AND PENALTIES

Interest will be charged on taxes not paid by their due date even if an extension of time to file is granted. The law also provides a late filing penalty and a failure to pay penalty.

UNDERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX (FORM AR2210)

You may have to pay a penalty if your net tax, Line 24, is more than $1,000 and you did not file a Declaration of Estimated Tax required by Arkansas tax code or you did not pay adequate installments on your estimated tax. See instructions for Line 37A and B for more information.

NOTE: Act 870 of 2019 adopted IRC Section 179 as in effect on January 1, 2009, thus allowing greater dollar limits and phase out thresholds. The maximum deduction allowed for property placed in service during the tax year is $25,000. The deduction is decreased "dollar for dollar" for property over $200,000, and no deduction is allowed for property over $225,000.

Fiduciary Income Tax Return Instructions (AR1002F & AR1002NR)

If you file a fiscal year return, fill in the fiscal year at the top of the form. The moment of death determines the end of the decedent's tax year and the beginning of the estate's tax year.

The Federal Employer Identification Number must be entered in the space provided on the top right side of the form. A separate Federal Employer Identification Number is required for each estate or trust.

Note: Social Security Number can not be used.

Fill in the exact name of the estate or trust, name and title of fiduciary or trustee, the address, and the date the trust was created. Check the appropriate box for "Type of Entity." Indicate whether you are filing an Original Return, an Amended Return, or a Final Return.

Note: The name of the estate or trust must be used and not that of a person.

INCOME

Note: Do not include income and deductions from the ESBT portion of a trust on lines 1 through 17 (if applicable). A separate schedule must be attached to show the ESBT tax computations. See instructions for lines 24A and 24E.

SCHEDULE B INSTRUCTIONS

INCOME DISTRIBUTION

Beneficiaries' share of income must be listed in this section. Include all information requested. If additional space is needed attach a separate schedule. Any income properly paid, credited, and/or distributable to a beneficiary is taxable to the beneficiary.

Resident beneficiaries must include distributions from any estate or trust in their total Arkansas income to determine if an AR1000F should be filed.

Nonresident beneficiaries who have distributions from an Arkansas estate or trust must file an Arkansas Individual Income Tax Return (AR1000NR) that reports total income received from Arkansas sources regardless of the amount of distribution.

NOTE: A completed AR K-1FE for each beneficiary of the estate or trust is required to be attached to this return.
