Special Event Promoter's Sales Tax Information

A promoter or organizer of a special event is required to register for sales tax collection with the Sales and Use Tax Section. The promoter or organizer is also required to provide to each vendor a special event tax reporting form and any other information which may be required.

A special event means an entertainment, amusement, recreational, or marketing event which occurs at a single location on an irregular basis and where tangible personal property is sold. Special events include, but are not limited to, music shows and events; auto shows; boat shows; gun shows; knife shows; home shows; craft shows; flea markets; carnivals; circuses; bazaars; fairs; and art or other merchandise displays or exhibits. A copy of Arkansas Code Ann. § 26-52-518 which defines a special event, a promoter or organizer, and special events vendors is included on the next page.

The sales of tickets or admission fees to the event are subject to state and local sales tax. The furnishing of camping spaces is subject to the 2% Tourism Tax in addition to state and local sales tax. If tangible personal property (tables, tablecloths, chairs, etc.) is rented to the vendors, the 1% Short Term Rental Tax must be collected in addition to the state and local sales tax. Charges for parking are also subject to state and local tax.

The current state sales tax rate is 6.5%. Local sales tax is also to be collected with the rate dependent on the location of the event. The local sales tax rates are available by following the link to the Sales and Use Tax Section on our website:
<http://www.dfa.arkansas.gov/Pages/default.aspx>.

Enclosed is the application form which must be completed by the promoter or organizer of the special event. The completed application is to be mailed to the address as listed below prior to the event.

Also enclosed are the reporting forms which are to be provided by the promoter or organizer to each special event vendor. The special event vendors are required to file daily reports with the promoter or organizer and remit the daily sales tax along with their completed forms. Envelopes are provided for each vendor to enclose the form and payment for each day.

Special event vendors are required to provide a Federal Identification Number (FEIN) or Social Security Number (SSN). Vendors with an ownership type of Corporation, Partnership, LLC, Government, or Non-Profit must provide their Federal Identification Number (FEIN). If the vendor has an ownership type of Sole Proprietorship the vendor must provide their Social Security Number (SSN) along with their Doing Business As (DBA) Name.

Vendors who fail to remit the ST-370 Vendor Form, along with any applicable tax due, shall be subject to assessment of tax, penalty, and interest. Please be aware any unpaid tax, penalty, and/or interest may result in a lien filing.

Make check(s) payable to Department of Finance and Administration.

Within thirty (30) days following the event, the promoter or organizer is required to forward all the daily reports and payments to the Sale and Use Tax Section. If the promoter fails to transmit the reports and payments, the promoter will be liable for the failure to remit the taxes due which they have collected from the special event vendors. The promoter or organizer should transmit to the Sales and Use Tax Section all the daily forms and payments collected from each special events vendor in the enclosed self addressed postage paid envelope.

Promoters and organizers shall be liable for failure to remit to the director sales taxes remitted to them by special event vendors, and shall be subject to assessment of tax, penalty, and interest for unremitted sales tax. Please be aware any unpaid tax, penalty, and/or interest may result in a lien filing.

If you have additional questions, please contact the Sales and Use Tax Special Events Section, PO Box 8140, Little Rock, Arkansas 72203-8140, phone number 501-682-7003.

Promoter Application must be completed and returned no later than Two Weeks prior to the start of your event. Vendor packets will be sent approximately Two Weeks prior to the start of your event.
