1) Litigation Update for Casino Gaming Licenses

The Arkansas Racing Commission met on this date. After discussion, the Commission decided to abandon the second license application process established in August 2019 that accepted new applications for casino gaming in Pope County. The Commission also decided not to consider any of those applications that were submitted during that August 2019 to November 2019 second license application process and to refund any fees that were included with the applications.

Commissioner Mark Lamberth made a motion to abandon all applications submitted August 2019 to November 2019. Commissioner Butch Rice seconded the motion; Motion Passed.
